

In today's workplace networking is so common and prevalent that even small and medium sized companies have implemented networking in some form or the other. More and more companies are heavily dependent upon successful operation of their network for their mission critical business functions.

UST provides a range of integrated network and system support solutions to keep your network and computer systems running reliably and efficiently. UST services include the following areas:

- New network design and installation (LAN/WAN)
- Ethernet, Internet and TCP/IP
- Hardware and Software selection for Networking
- Router Setup and Configuration
- VPN Setup and Configuration
- Troubleshooting and Diagnostics
- Operating System Support – Unix, AIX, Solaris, HP-UX, MS Windows
- Unix System Administration
- Linux System Administration
- Windows System Administration
- Network Security