

UST provides the best professional support for running your mission critical applications and running your business efficiently with the least downtime.

After you have spent a fortune in implementing the best IT infrastructure and computer systems in place, you will need a partner who can provide you professional support when you need it. UST wants to be your business Partner who you can trust to support your applications, system software, network and IT operations on a 24X7 basis. Not only we will protect your IT investment every step of the way, but also help you with business continuity and disaster recovery.